

Hi Kevin. Belated thanks and congratulations on a wonderful program about Onboarding.

Below are results, with some averages to compare them with. Between 970 and 981 responded to each questions...so these are pretty statistically valid results. (I assume you know we had huge attendance for this one). These are great scores, in our top 5% all time -- doubly impressive since you had such a large audience. Somewhere someone said you can't please all of the people all of the time -- but came within a couple of percentage points of disproving that on Question 4 below!

Looking forward to working with you again on a webcast -- soon, I hope....
